

Home > Arts & Events > Kids > Central Park Chess Tournament

New York Magazine

KIDS

Central Park Chess Tournament

Chess and Checkers House at Central Park
Fifth Ave. at 65th St., New York, NY 10021
212-956-1005

Age Range

6-to-12 Years Old

Schedule

10/01/06

10am

Profile

Three-time U.S. chess champion Lev Alburt will conduct "simul" play against all the kids participating in this year's Central Park chess tournament. Kids from kindergarten through eighth grade can compete for free. Following the games will be an awards ceremony, free refreshments, and live jazz music. Rumor has it that President Clinton, a chess lover himself, may show up with his sax. Preregistration required. — Susan Avery

Price: Free

Reservations: No Recommendation

Nearby Subway Stops: 6 at 68th St.-Hunter College; B, C at 72nd St.

Directions: The Chess and Checkers House is actually located in the middle of the park.